to the peon's disease. The peon did not enjoy any pension. The widow's son is a peon in the Excise department on Rs.14/ a month and is married. The peon's conduct was fair and had no serious punishments. Any compassionate gratuity, if sanctioned may be ordered to be paid at the Bellary treasury.

The peon's service book and defaulter book are herewith submitted.

The Inspector of Excise.,
Bellary circle.,
Bellary.

Sir,

I, widow Hanumakka of the late peon Sri Hanumanthu of Bellary circle of the Excise Department, beg to submit these few lines for your favourable and sympathetic consideration.

My husband had sufficiently served the Government and was retired to pension of Rs.6/- a month from the 23rd November 1931 as per Accountant General's Ref.No.Pen.H/31-32 3037 dated 12th January 1932, but the poor man died on the 22nd February 1932. He did not draw his arrears of pension even for the Pension payment order No.78553.

He was suffering from dropsy. He left after him myself in my old age, and a daughter quite destitute of anything. This daughter is not yet married. I have a son, but he has been living separately after his marriage and in fact he joined his father-in-law's house and he has not been useful to us in anyway and will not support us at all. In very rare cases, sons become useful to their parents while they grow old to earn their bread while I am left with family encumbrances without means of subsistence at this juncture in my old age and bereved circumstances.

As my husband collapsed not even enjoying a single pie out of his pension. besides I have incurred debts for his medical treatment etc., while he was for the last 9 months in bed, and towards the funeral expenses. I therefore request your honour will kindly grant me a relief to mitigate the enexpressable hardship arisen out of my husband's death. In as much as my husband died leaving me in my bereaved circumstances after full period of good service in the department I pray, that your honour would be graciously pleased to pity my case and recommend the sanction of compassionate gratuity at least in lieu of this meagre pension payment order being bequethed to me in these hard days of my widowhood and old age. The pension payment order is enclosed for favour of necessary action.

For which act of kindness, I shall be ever grateful to you.

I beg to remain

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

L.T.M. of Hanumakka.
